About the Work

Missed/Tentative Connections

The pieces are the latest iteration of the series 'Eroding Time' which focuses on root systems. Within this new series, I am working with photographs, cyanotypes and photograms to create imagined root formations. By splicing, dissecting and reforming the aforementioned, I work through a process of distancing from the roots depicted. Using the new image, lines are redefined in paper form through embedding marks into the paper using a needle.

All artwork sizes are listed in mm.

Works made with Khadi Papers Cotton Rag Paper.

Clusters is made with
Two Rivers Original Rag Paper.

All works are sold unframed.
